I enclose herewith a copy of the Dewan's oral instructions with regard to the appointment of extra peons required for my offices. At present only one peon is being given to all the gazetted officers and two for the Collector and the Personal Assistant. Two more peons for the Collector and two for each of the gazetted assistants would be required as noted in the margin. At present there is only one peon to the Additional First Class Magistrate's Court. One more peons for the Court and two peons to work as orderly's with the Magistrate are necessary. In all, therefore, thirteen peons as noted in the margin are necessary. There are fourteen (permanent) in the Residency Office to be absorbed and one Jamedar, One Daffedar, and one Chobdar. Thirteen of the peons will be absorbed as stated above and another peon in an existing vacancy in the Bench Court.
